

Chapter 16 Test Notes

1. By the 1850s manufacturing was becoming more important in the North.
2. In the South most of the workers who picked and cleaned cotton were enslaved African Americans.
3. The purpose of the Underground Railroad was to help slaves escape to freedom.
4. Abolitionists were people who wanted to end slavery in the U.S.
5. 7 Southern states seceded and formed the Confederate States of America after Abraham Lincoln was elected President.
6. Nat Turner led a revolt against slave owners in Virginia.
7. William Lloyd Garrison was an abolitionist who began the newspaper called the Liberator.
8. Lucretia Mott was one of the leaders of the Seneca Falls Convention.
9. Harriet Beecher Stowe was the author of the anti-slavery novel Uncle Tom's Cabin.
10. Stephen Douglas was a candidate for President in 1860 that supported states' rights.
11. Know which state was the first to secede from the Union.
12. Know what the newspapers called the conflict in the Kansas territory.

13. Know who the first President of the Confederate States of America was.