

Chapter 2 Test Notes

1. Humid America stretches from the Atlantic Ocean to the Great Plains
2. Coal is a non-renewable resource.
3. The climate of a region is based on its temperature and precipitation.
4. Recycling paper is an example of conservation.
5. Acid rain is formed by harmful chemicals mixing with moisture in the air.
6. Corn is a very important crop in the MW.
7. From an airplane the NE looks like one huge city.
8. An imaginary line called the Continental Divide is in the W.
9. Many people in the SE depend on the Mississippi River for farming, transportation and trade.
10. In recent years more people have moved to the SW than to any other region.
11. Know the 5 regions of the U.S.
12. Know the canyon in the SW.
13. Know the 2 plains in the MW.
14. Know the 2 Great Lakes in the NE.
15. Distance from the equator helps to determine climate.
16. Know 2 of the 3 major non-renewable resources.
17. Name 3 of the 5 products listed in our book that come from forests.

18. One way that we practice conservation is to recycle.