

Chapter 1 Test Notes

1. In recent years most immigrants to the U.S. have come from Asia and Latin America.
2. A census is an official study of a country's people.
3. Following one's religion is a civil right of all U.S. citizens.
4. Relatives who lived before you are called ancestors.
5. An encyclopedia article about World War I is a secondary source of information about World War I.
6. Values are beliefs or ideals that guide how people live.
7. Prejudice is a negative opinion formed without truth.
8. Oral History is a spoken record of true events from the past.
9. A form of government in which people elect representatives to run their country is a republic.
10. Perspective is the point of view a historian uses when interpreting events.
11. Know 2 of the countries or areas that make up Latin America.
12. Citizens give their consent by voting.
13. Know what the 3 levels of our government are.
14. Know 2 different kinds of Primary Sources.