The parties hereto acknowledge that it is most desirable for a teacher and his supervisor to resolve problems through free and informal communications. If however, such processes fail to satisfy the teacher, a grievance may be processed as follows:

- 8.2.1 The teacher may present the grievance in writing to the Superintendent immediately involved who will arrange for a meeting to take place within ten (10) working days or when mutually agreed upon after receipt of the grievance. The modification of 8.2.3 by the successor to the 2009-2012 agreement reflects the parties' longstanding intention that all grievances may be processed to arbitration only by the Association, and therefore this language shall apply to all pending and future grievances.

8.2.3.a Neither the Board nor the SEA shall be permitted to assert any grounds or evidence before the arbitrator which was not previously disclosed to the parties involved.

8.2.3.b The arbitrator shall have no power to alter the terms of this agreement.

APPENDIX B

Retirement Incentive Pay

Any teacher who provides the Board of Education with a signed letter of intent to retire at least one school year, but not more than two school years in advance of said retirement as an annuitant into the Teachers Retirement System shall be entitled to an increase of not more than six percent total TRS creditable earnings each over the previous year's TRS creditable earnings. Retiring teachers will be paid the regular contractual salary amount during the year, with a lump sum payment in August to meet the six percent (6%) creditable earnings increase over the previous year.

All letters of intent to retire are binding and irrevocable

The terms of this retirement incentive agreement are good through the 2014/2015 school year.

The retirement bonus described in the first paragraph reflects continuous service at the same level as prior to notice of intent to retire. If, during the retirement incentive period, the teacher changes to lesser fractional employment status, or ceases to perform a previously performed extra duty or other service for which extra salary is paid, the 6% increase shall be applied to what the teacher's prior salary would have been had the reduction or change occurred the prior year:

EXAMPLE: Employee AB had a salary-schedule salary of $45,000 in 2014-2015, and additionally earned a $2,000 extra duty stipend. AB timely gives a notice of intent to retire two years in advance. During 2012-2013 AB no longer performs the extra duty. The salary for 2015-2016 is 106% of $45,000 = $47,700.

EXAMPLE: Employee CD was full time at a salary of $45,000 immediately after giving notice of intent to retire in two years, at the end of 2016-2017. During the summer, prior to 2016, 2017, due to an illness of a parent, CD requests to become one-half time for the final year of employment, which is granted by the board. CD's salary for 2015-2016 will be $106\% \times $45,000 = 47,700$. For 2016-2017, CD's salary will be $$47,700 \times 106\% \times \frac{1}{2} = $25,281$.

In order to avoid statutory "penalties" for an increase in salary exceeding 6%, in no case will the Board be required to pay more than 106% of prior year earnings for a teacher who has given irrevocable notice of intent to retire, even if the teacher's duties increase or the teacher performs additional extra duties.

If the General Assembly imposes upon the Board during the term of this Agreement any responsibility to pay a TRS contribution in excess of that which existed on May 15, 2012, or imposes any cost, charge or "penalty" due to application of this provision, then this paragraph will cease to exist effective prior to the time of such increased contribution, cost, charge or penalty. The Association shall have the right to negotiate the impact of the resulting elimination of this paragraph.
